Application no. 46881/08
Burström v. Sweden

Dear Sir,

I write to inform you that on 19 January 2010 the European Court of Human Rights, sitting in a single-judge formation (L. López Guerra), decided to declare inadmissible your application lodged on 22 September 2008 and registered under the above-mentioned number. The Court found that the requirements of the Convention had not been met.

The Court found that, as regards the decision to reject your application for being res judicata, the present application was essentially the same as your previous application (appl. no. 21695/06). As concerns the remainder of your complaints, the Court found that in the light of all the material in its possessions, and in so far as the matters complained about were within its competence, they did not disclose any appearance of a violation of the rights and freedoms set out in the Convention or its Protocols.

This decision is final and not subject to any appeal to either the Court, including its Grand Chamber, or any other body. You will therefore appreciate that the Registry will be unable to provide any further details about the single judge's deliberations or to conduct further correspondence relating to its decision in this case. You will receive no further documents from the Court concerning this case and, in accordance with the Court's instructions, the file will be destroyed one year after the date of the decision.

The present communication is made pursuant to Rule 52A of the Rules of Court.

Yours faithfully,
For the Court

S. Naismith
